

COLOR SURFACES

GET INSPIRED WITH BREATHTAKING COLORS AND STUNNING REAL-LIFE APPLICATIONS

Discover the latest color trends and explore the exciting finishes being used by the world's leading color and material experts in our exclusive collection.

Every year, our creative team gets together with external design experts to discuss the consumer trends that are expected to influence our color and material choices over the next 12 months, including an overall color of the year.

The result is ColorSurfaces, our visually-stunning color trends collection. It tells the story of how we distill global trends into inspiring coating palettes for the automotive, aerospace and consumer electronics industry.

Combined with in-depth color analysis, comprehensive material research and inspiring visuals, ColorSurfaces provides unique insights to feed your inspiration.

Whether you're looking for a whole new concept, or to inject some extra wow! factor into an existing product line, ColorSurfaces is where our design partnership begins.
